Art Unit: 1644

Amendment of 19/14/05 has been entered. Claims 1-3 and 5-12 are pending. Claims 1-3 and 5-12 are under examination. The amendment has entered no new matter.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The amendment has overcome previously stated issues as follows:

The objection(s) to the oath (see MPEP 602.05 re omission of date).

The objection(s) to the specification.

The prior art rejection of claims 4-10 based upon Peters et al (FASEB J 2000). The Rule 132 declaration of Terry Thomas overcomes the rejection, since the cited Peters et al reference has a 102(a) date, with respect to the effective filing date of 4/2/01 presently granted to claims 1-3, 5-6, 8 and 10-12, as well as with respect to the effective filing date of 5/26/00 granted to claims 7 and 9.

The following rejection(s) of record are maintained or modified as follows:

Prior to examination on the merits the filing date of the claims must be established:

In the previous office action it was noted that claim 4 was granted benefit of the filing date of parent application 09/822,823. Since claim 4 has now been cancelled and incorporated into claim 1, claims 1-3 and 5-6, 8 and 10-12 are only granted benefit of the '823 filing date of 4/2/01.

Claims 7 and 9 are granted benefit of the 5/26/00 filing date of grand-parent application 09/579,463 (See original claims 26 and 28 therein).

Claims 7 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 26 and 28 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,448,075. This is a double patenting rejection.

Claims 1-3, 5-6, 8 and 10-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims and 29 of U.S. Patent No. 6,448,075.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant claim 1 now incorporates the limitations of original claim 4; instant claim 1 is thus rejected with the same rational set forth for claim 4, in the previous Office action.

Instant claims 2-3 recite features shown in issued claims 2-3.

Instant claims 6 and 10 parallel the recitations of issued claims 27 and 29, respectively; however, the instant claims recite "and/or" while the issued claims simply recite "and" in setting off the last recited member of each group of antibodies. Since "and/or" clearly encompasses "and" the instant and issued claims have common embodiments, and a disclaimer is required to assure continued common ownership of the two sets of claims.

Instant claims 5 and 8 recite an antibody that is one of the group of antibodies recited in issued claims 27 and 29. Since the scope of instant claims 5 and 8 is open and would encompass the group of antibodies recited in issued claims 27 and 29, a disclaimer is required to assure continued common ownership of the two sets of claims.

Instant claim 11 parallels no issued claim in its recitation; however, the embodiment wherein antibody (b) of claim 1 is one that binds glycophorin-A on erythrocytes would be clearly encompassed by issued claim 1, because anti-glycophorin-A is disclosed and exemplified throughout the specification of Pat. '075 as a preferred embodiment of antibody (b). A disclaimer is required to assure continued common ownership of the two sets of claims.

Instant claim 12 recites features shown in issued claim 33.

Claims 1-2, 5-6, 8 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by Peters et al (Proceed. Amer. Assoc. Cancer Res., Vol. 41, p. 589, March 2000).

As noted supra claims 1-3 and 5-12 only have benefit of the 4/2/01 filing date of parent application 09/822,823. For this reason the rejection of record is presently applied to claims 2 and 5, in addition to previously rejected claims 1, 6, 8 and 10. Since this date is more than one year after March 2000, the rejection under 102(b) is proper.

Peters et al teach all aspects of the instant immunorsetting method involving negative selection, including the removal of cells having the CD antigens recited in claims 1, 5-6, 8 and 10. Peters et al teach the enrichment of epithelial tumor cells which are a type of non-hematopoietic cell

Applicant has urged that provisional application 60/193,371, filed 3/31/00, supports the instant claims by reciting the combination of antibodies to CD2, CD16, CD19, CD36, CD38, CD45 and CD66b, and that this provisional application predates Peters et al published in April 2000. These arguments are erroneous for two reasons:

Firstly, the examiner notes that mere recitation of the combination of antibodies to CD2, CD16, CD19, CD36, CD38, CD45 and CD66b, in the provisional application, does not support a claim to the more specific subcombination of antibodies to CD45 and CD66b. However, while the Peters et al reference discloses the same combination of antibodies to CD2, CD16, CD19, CD36, CD38, CD45 and CD66b that the provisional application discloses, the reference remains citable against instant claim 1 reciting the more specific subcombination of antibodies to CD45 and CD66b; this results from the fact that the antibody composition recited in part (1) of claim 1 is open in scope. Further, the specific subcombination of antibodies to CD45 and CD66b was disclosed in grandparent application 09/579,463 as being only for the enrichment of non-hematopoietic tumor cells; since “non-hematopoietic cells” recited instantly are broader than “non-hematopoietic tumor cells”, the instant claims do not have benefit of the “463 filing date. Secondly, the examiner points out that the Peters et al reference (i.e. cited on Form 892 and supplied with the previous Office action) was published March 2000, not April 2000. Thus the reference is citable under 102(b).

Finally, applicant has argued that the examiner should not cite Peters et al, because the reference was not cited during the prosecution of parent 09/822,823. This argument is irrelevant for two reasons:

Firstly, the claims being presently examined are not the same as those of parent application 09/822,823. Secondly, applicant has stated that it was Peters et al (FASEB J, April 2000) that was not cited during prosecution of parent application 09/822,823, while the examiner presently has cited Peters et al (Proceed. Amer. Assoc. Cancer Res., March 2000). Since the date of the reference is March 2000, not April 2000, the reference date is a 102(b) date; in such case the examiner can properly cite a reference having an authorship that is identical to the inventive entity. The only claims which cannot be rejected over Peters et al (March 2000) are 7 and 9, which have benefit of the filing date of grand-parent application 09/579,463.

Applicant's arguments filed 9/14/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive for the above reasons.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
